

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

McDONNELL'S

LARGE DECORATIVE DAHLIAS

75c each, 3 for $2.00

Pictured and described on the cover . . .

AUTUMN SUNSET

HILL'S SUPREME

ALICE HUME. Big 10-inch flowers in a soft buff shade.

BLUE RIVER. Silvery-lavender flowers are borne in profusion on a low-growing bushy plant.

BOBBY DEAN. Considered one of the finest apricot dahlias and very popular everywhere.

CHAS. L. MASTICK. Large compact blooms are bronze to orange. Prized for its form and good-keeping quality.

CACTUS DAHLIAS

75c each, 3 for $2.00

ANIMATO. A delicate shell pink with a lighter reverse. Low-growing but very good stems for cutting.

DOREEN CRANE. Medium peach shading to rich apricot at the center. Blooms early, cuts nicely.

JERSEY DAINTY. A lacy and dainty pure white, about eight inches across. Medium height.

MISS GLORY. Lush yellow flowers are borne on long stems on medium to tall plants.

SATAN. Deep scarlet and very good. Blooms are fairly large, usually 10 inches.

MRS. GEORGE LEBOUTILLIER

MRS. WM. KNUDSEN

MINIATURE DAHLIAS

50c each, 6 for $2.50

FAIRY. An old-timer but still one of the best lavender pinks.

I. K. E. Vigorous plants produce excellent crops of ruby red flowers.

QUEEN OF THE YELLOWS. A vivid yellow that stands out in the garden.

WHITE FAWN. Many snow-white blooms against deep green foliage.

★ ★ ★

POMPON DAHLIAS

50c each, 6 for $2.50

ARTHUR KERLEY. Deep ruby red.

AMBER QUEEN. Luscious amber.

BANTAM. A good scarlet red.

BETTY ANN. Clear rich pink.

JOE FETTE. Good clear white.

LIBBY ROEHR. Unusual purple.

MARY MUNN. Pure lavender.

TIP TOP. Raspberry red.

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ APR 27 1951 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Sec. 34.66 P. L. & R.
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
Permit No. 21
San Anselmo, Calif.

Library,
U.S. Dept. of Agriculture
Washington 25, D. C.

McDONNELL NURSERY
5146 Telegraph Ave. at Claremont
Oakland 9, California
Open Sunday, Closed Thursday Olympic 2-1785

MRS. GEORGE
LE'BOUTILLIER

HILL'S SUPREME

AUTUMN SUNSET

MRS. WM. KNUDSEN

Dahlias

AUTUMN SUNSET. Big 10-inch blooms are yellow, blending to red.

HILL'S SUPREME. Huge clear pink blooms on long, strong stems.

MRS. GEORGE LE'BOUTILLIER. Giant flowers on low-growing plants are deep red.

MRS. WM. KNUDSEN. Medium flowers are pearly-white; long, wiry stems.